What an exciting hidden little gem tucked away in Broad street. It is a small family type restaurant with an almost 80% Chinese clientele. The sea food is excellent fresh and incredibly delicious. It's hard to fault the food ... trust me I have tried but they keep winning me over. The staff team are curiously polite all the time. They smile laugh and talk and this obviously means that it's a happy place to be ... wha... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Temple Of Heaven:

I went there for lunch on my own as was hungry. Not really welcomed by staff and there was nobody in when I went so cant say they were busy. Lunch menu on the window was advertised at £6.50 but was charged £7.90 and a can of coke £2.80 which I feel is daylight robbery. So instead walk around the corner to Tarn Thai and enjoy a 2 course lunch with coffee for £10.95 and it is delicious. So don't waste your time even s... read more.

Temple Of Heaven The groundbreaking Asian fusion cuisine will thrill you, the exquisite mix of familiar flavors and exciting new creations will amaze!, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian meals. Surely, it's also a nice experience to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and eat like the cowboys or even the bandits with a beverage or two paired with onion rings and a nice tasty burger, Many customers are particularly looking forward to the experience of versatile, fine Chinese cuisine.
