What 5Stephanie L \(7 1 year ago on Google\) likes about Elaf Lebanese:

The first thing you need to know is: it's BYOB with no corkage fee. Secondly, it's always bustling; make a reservation if you've got a group. Finally, share your mains. The portions are extremely generous and you'll want to taste the everything. The Fuls Medames and the Spicy Elaf Chicken were my two favourite dishes but I should say that the Hummus disappeared almost as soon as it arrived on the table. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, and there is free WLAN. Elaf Lebanese from Macclesfield provides tasty, light digestible Mediterranean cuisine with its characteristic courses, there are also delectable vegetarian menus in the menu. Not to be left out is the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, The customers also rave about the scrumptious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the intense combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
