I was there to a ceremony of respect for a group elder professor/teacher, the environment was there room, a traditional Japanese tea room. The experience was amazing, after the shooting we sat all and had dinner, the colors and the flavors were exquisite. Who would have known that the true Asian culture was so exactly there in praha. This is the first time I had Japanese food while the Czech Republic, I think my next... read more. What User doesn't like about Miyabi:

A very appealingly designed place which supports the feeling of authenticity. The food, unfortunately, was quite lacklustre, which with the prices in mind, will make you feel like you are paying for the experience rather than for the food. read more. With a large selection of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the Miyabi from Prague prepares easy-to-digest, fine Japanese meals, Especially fine are also the Maki and delicacies like Sashimi from this restaurant. It should not be forgotten that there is a extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant.
