we had visited the milestone hotel for a private function, so this was our first visit in the cheneston. it is a beautiful room and we enjoyed excellent service and a delicious food. in particular the agnolotti with mushrooms and truffles as starter and. the pan fried halibut were excellent. I don't think the restaurant is known and it's worth visiting read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What Scott Murray doesn't like about Cheneston's At The Milestone: Came for drinks and lunch. It's an interesting and attractive interior, and the service couldn't be faulted attentive and considerate. But the food was a real let down. My chicken noodle soup was so salty as to leave little other taste. My steak was...dry and tasteless ordered medium so it should have still contained plenty of juice. It comes just with chunky chips. Ordered roast vegetables to accompany, but these we... read more. The fine and fresh juices listed on the drinks menu, perfectly complete the menus of the establishment, Furthermore, the customers of the restaurant enjoy the large selection of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available.
