We called in here for a light lunch. Although busy, there were tables available. My wife chose the baked potato with chili, nachos, guacamole and sour cream. I had a chicken sandwich with additional items such as guacamole, corn and peppers. The sandwich was freshly prepared and had plenty of filling. The baked potato was hot and the chili was nicely spicy. The mug of coffee was excellent. It's not the cheapest place... read more.

I will not be back. I have said this several time before but today was the last straw unless I hear of good reviews. Lunch time today 12.45. One very pleasant young chap on his own behind the counter doing his best but could have done with help. Tables all over the place full of dishes and unclean floor. Also, scones very hard as I have experienced previously before, breaking up into crumbs when trying to cut them op... read more.
