large Victorian pub in the heart of dundee. excellent drink selection, among them several real ales in large condition. eating is also good. lively and busy on a Saturday night, but no problem served as much personal. I really enjoyed my visit. highly recommended when they visit dundee. read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Phoenix:

barmaid needs happy pills. Eating is decent, but do not make the mistake of ordering a water with their food, and the drinks of their companions. it is said that it is a policy, at least after the self-righteous merciful water (for they cannot be charged) to serve warm out of the hahn and without ice. if they like to be treated like a second citizen (as my wife was) because they do not drink, then this is the place t...
