always well cooked eating and very good value for money. drinks are also really cheap, even not alcohol. they take a long time to serve the food, but this is the only one below read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available for free. What Paul H doesn't like about The Ivy Wall:

Shame about this one whats with the half measures when no ice is requested. Pepsi was on its last legs nearly flat and tasteless Not my favourite weatherspoons no real character. Food was quick but old chips been around too long and seemed reheated. Mens toilet out of use so had to keep adding staff for the disabled toilets key. Very inconvenient Don't think I'll try this one again read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Ivy Wall in South Holland traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Not to be overlooked is also the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, For a snack, you can also have the tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks.
