We were searching for somewhere special to eat for our anniversary and came across the website for The Harbour in Thorpe Bay. We live within walking distance but had not visited since the restaurant was Cafe Ciao. The menus and photos looked good so we thought we would give it a try and definitely did not regret it. The staff are welcoming and clearly passionate about the food and what they are doing. Every course (a... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What seaseaseasiders doesn't like about Cafe Ciao:

Been regular visitors to ciao's for some time now but the new owners have now introduced a different menu where prices for breakfast have massively increased from very reasonable to expensive. No discernible quality difference and now looking poor value. Like supporting local businesses but will now eat elsewhere. Recommend cafe Ciaus don't take customers for granted in these tough times, even supposedly affluent Thor... read more.
