What User likes about Corner'n:

So we try to write that right, and do the good old good bad thing, so we start eating. In general it is quite good and most people I meet say the same. I ate there recently and had the pasta parma which was really good and the contained broth was good. The same for the people I had with, except two of the people I had ordered, were some of the most depressing burgers I saw in one because and eat a strong contrast to... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Corner'n:

I find the menu to be simplistic, it reminds me of the old Wimpy restaurants of the 60s in England. Oven chips, thoughtless poor salads, with 1000 island dressing. I will say the staff are friendly polite. It just smacks to much of a fast food outlet. read more. The Corner'n from Jevnaker serves dishes that you can find all over Europe, and you may look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks. Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
