On the way north to lunch, and the duck teriyaki pizza was from the best pizzas I ever had. The crust was crispy outside and chew inside and very tasty, the cheese was great. Gf had the margherita, and the tomato sauce was also fantastic. I am happy to go back the next time, I am in town, fully recommend to any pizza lover! read more.

We went there on a Saturday around 7pm, waited 45min for out food, because the place was packed. Location is good, but there are so many tables, we didn't have space for jackets or even to just move. The waitress was walking into my chair a few times and I had to move constantly to let other people pass, while I was eating. The pizza was good! But the edges where really big, probably a third of the pizza. read more.
