What User doesn't like about Justinlees Inn:

not impressed. with a group for a well fed but late Christmas night outside. it was very busy. the food service was slow. some of our party have dietary problems and the length of time eating was over. After some food had delivered, others had to wait longer while others were served around us. it was bland, fish and chips everything was broken, salad was all iceberg salad (and no speckle as advertised). the baked in...
