three of us tried the fleet to lunch and had a good meal. the 10oz gammon I had surprisingly shaken a lot fat, and with the ice and the fries, made a very nice lunch. Although the prices were similar to the weathering poons next door, it seemed a bit more up and was certainly less crowded and quieter. an excellent value that could enjoy lunch. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Fleet:

we had a meal before we had a concert in the guildhall. my wife had fish and chips, I had lasagne. neither eating was great, but we were hungry and it filled a gap. I liked the quality of food similar to supermarket own brand frozen dishes. the pub was very busy and although there was a quite long wait for the cash, the employees were efficient and friendly. I would probably visit for a drink, but would not eat here... read more.
