Nicki and her staff are so lovely and there is a wonderful, warm, welcoming vibe. I often pop in for coffee or breakfast and my husband and I sometimes treat ourselves to lunch. I've also often worked there, using the wifi and peaceful atmosphere. It's exactly what a village cafe should be. Lovely home made cakes and sausage rolls too. read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What LaViaBelle doesn't like about Cafe 46:

The location in the very quiet little market town is central and the staff are very friendly. Inside is a bit of a squeeze so it can get a bit hot, however there is some outside seating which if the weather is dry and sunny can be used. Drinks were absolutely fine and whilst we did not have cakes they looked nice. Rather wish we had, as made mistake of opting for sausage bacon baps. The bread itself was a bit dry and...
