We visited this Cafe after a long walk in the forest. Dogs are welcome inside the cafe. Inside there is a log burning stove, which was very welcome, the cafe had a nice rustic feel they do there own baking and my wife described the scone as the best she had. The coffee was lovely. We had visited the Cafe at the Cheese makers across the road which was very nice but had to sit outside with the dog. We will certainly be... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its customers, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. The joint spoils you with a little bit of this and a little bit of that with their appreciated Tapas.
