Nanking Chinese has garnered mixed reviews from patrons, highlighting a striking contrast in experiences. Some diners lamented declining food quality, describing dishes as undercooked or unappetizing, coupled with frustrating customer service encounters. Others, however, praised the restaurant for its generous portion sizes and fresh, tasty meals, particularly enjoying the Chow Mein and Foo Yung. Loyal customers appreciate the consistent quality, prompt delivery, and overall value for money. While access and parking present challenges, many agree that the restaurant remains a delightful option for those craving Chinese cuisine, proving to be a reliable choice in the Castleford area.
