What User likes about Millbank Lounge: the signature cocktails are super fun, something different takes up some well-known classics who help during a lazy January evening. the mojito britannia with gin, elderflower, apple juice, lime and mint was really refreshing, but slightly sweet for me. read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about Millbank Lounge: please stay away from this hotel and restaurant. Major renovation is going on and very loud. too much dust around the facility, there is no way relax at the property because of too loud construction work. read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Millbank Lounge even more worthwhile, the restaurant serves also meals from the European environment. Furthermore, there are many typically British meals on the card that make the English heart beat faster, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
