A stand out 'traditional' British chippy, which has maintained its high standards since I first used it in the 1970's. Forget the multi food take-aways filling every UK high street; if you want the real deal, proper, old school, Fish and Chips, then pay this fine establishment a visit. You will not be disappointed: read more. What User doesn't like about Hurworth Fisheries:

Sorry to say by far the worst fish (supposedly cod) and peas I've ever had. Batter was mushy and strange taste. Peas were watery and again strange but almost tasteless. Chips were very good to be fair but far too much salt put on in the shop. A real shame as local to me but I won't be using again read more.
