An excellent dog friendly, stop off point en route to Norfolk. Panini were superb and the staff very welcoming and responsive. Only blot for me (but not enough to mark it down) was the historic explanation of the name on the blackboard behind the tills. Just a touch triumphalist and not too endearing to overseas visitors. Just my view but then I'm probably over sensitive. Otherwise, a terrific find ! read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WiFi is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about La Hogue Farm Shop Cafe:

Could not understand why such a quality farm shop stocked only one local cheese. For example, there was French and Somerset Brie on sale, but not Suffolk Brie which is far superior. Shameful read more.
