First time visiting and not the last! We were pleasantly surprised when we sat down to have that good feeling of local people, a place where everyone knew each other. The gentleman who helped us was extremely polite and you can tell he knew the business and how to run it properly. Now the food, wow! We had two roast chicken (Sunday roast), and it didn't disappoint! Everything cooked perfectly! read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Willow Tree Inn:

Large group went for family meal. Some of the food was pretty good, but the beef in particular from the Christmas menu was chewy, grey and difficult to eat. The kids meals weren't great quality, and some of the desserts (the cheesecake in particular was grainy and had an odd texture and taste). The table service was interesting, from the staff going round with a bin bag demanding rubbish, to then asking us to collect un... read more.
