We had lunch here 2 weeks ago. It was absolutely stunning. Everything was cooked to perfection, absolutely delicious and presented so lovely. We both had the corn fed chicken. I had the panacotta which was just heavenly and my other half had the cheese biscuits which we were able to share as there was plenty. Can't wait to go back read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available free of charge. What George Berry doesn't like about Duke William:

Wonderful service, location and food but incredibly expensive for the small portions. Specifically, the Wellington, the venison and the bread pudding. Two slices of wellington around the same width as a Swiss roll and an inch thick, and a single thin slice of bread pudding. Six drinks, two starters, three mains and three deserts cost over £150. If the portions were significantly larger to reflect the premium cost the... read more.
