A lovely cafe in the centre of Thirsk. Although it's a chain, and I normally prefer going to individual cafes, the place was very well staffed with competent servers. The tables are well spaced out, so not getting the feeling of being overpowered by other guests. Would definitely recommend. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Caffe Nero:

Filthy place with soiled chairs that need throwing out and burning. Food on floor and sticky tables. Decaf tea tasteless and weak. Staff do their job but not over friendly or appearing to be happy. read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Caffe Nero in Hambleton traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, Especially the delicious juices are highly appreciated by the guests. Not to be overlooked is also the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, In addition, you'll find sweet delicacies, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
