Dining at this historic pub near Hyde Park was a delightful experience, with a fantastic burger and delicious brownie with ice cream. The staff, especially bartender Mark, were friendly and welcoming, providing excellent beer recommendations. The location is perfect, and live music on weekends adds to the lively atmosphere. The pub offers a great selection of English meals and beers, catering to large parties as well. With a charming atmosphere and reasonable prices, this pub is highly recommended. However, recent changes to the burger menu have left some customers disappointed, so it's advisable to check current offerings.
