Just came here for breakfast with Santa and had to write a review immediately. Not only was the experience magical of seeing Santa walking around and sitting down for a chat and my son then receiving a present, the breakfast itself was quite possibly the best I've ever had and amazing value for money. Wish I could've personally given the compliment to the chefs. read more. What User doesn't like about The Mill At Worston:

I have been here before and always had good food. Yesterday I ordered my favourite meal of pulled beef with caramelised onions in a Yorkshire Pudding wrap. I noticed the price had gone up but I really enjoyed this last time I had it. When it arrived it was chunks of roast beef, obviously cooked previously, with some gravy . There was no caramelised onion and the side salad was a single sprig of something green and dr... read more.
