Great place for my farewell lunch with all my radar and EPR colleagues from St Andrews Uni. I think the chef was overwhelmed by the numbers even though we had submitted our orders earlier. The food was good however, it just came out over a long period. We had our own private room where we could control the volume of the music. All in all a good experience. read more. You can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. Enjoy a little bit of this and a little bit of everything at the restaurant, known for its appreciated Tapas, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an original manner.
