What Liam Martin likes about The Last Brasserie:

Had a really good evening at William and Florence. We sat outside but we were plenty warm enough with a heater nearby and an optional, fresh blanket on hand. The food was really good but I was most impressed with the service. We were treated very nicely and all staff were attentive and helpful just the right balance. read more.

A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Last Brasserie in Norwich traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, Additionally, you save time with the assortment of ready-made delicacies, without affecting the enjoyment. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning.
