I just randomly happened upon this place and chose to eat there because there was a seat in the sun. I had lemon sole with mashed potato and asparagus with an amazing citrus sauce. It was so simple and absolutely beautiful. I'll go there again next time I'm in Dun Laoghaire. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, and there is free WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Harry's Bistro:

Service took a very long time and food was served cold. No condiments on the table either. Most of the staff were lovely, but the manager was incredibly rude and condescending and invaded our personal space, reaching across us on the table to passive-aggressively replace a takeaway cup we had brought and to add "finishing touches" to food we had already started eating ... terrible. He wouldn't let me order a coffee fro... read more.
