Indian Chef is a very unusual takeaway. It 's quite unlike many 'Indian ' takeaways that rely on a menu of takeaway standards: korma, vindaloo, dupiaza. Indian Chef has a real, and very talented, chef who cooks dishes proudly based on Bangladeshi cuisine. The menu changes as in-house recipes are added: Baingam with mangos and aubergine, Modhu with coconut and honey. Wanting something simple and vegetarian, I ordered... read more. What Zoe Phillips doesn't like about Indian Chef:

Ordered a chicken and prawn balti last night for 6pm got there at 5 50pm it was ready brought it straight home which is a minute drive got it straight on to plates it was COLD no way was this just cooked it was last nights warm up... chicken was not freshly cooked and prawns had no taste and where like rubber won't be back read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The imaginative Asian fusion cuisine of the Indian Chef from County Durham - a delicious mix of traditional and the unexpected, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian menus, One also prepares menus tastily and freshly with typical Indian spices.
