Normally you might be able to get to the Ship and Lobster via the coastal path (I'm not really sure) but as part of it was closed we had a rather uninspiring walk past scruffy industrial sites and, to be honest, the pub itself is situated in a rather drab and dismal area. Having said that, although it is clearly overdue a refurb, we found it to be a most welcoming and friendly pub. The decor is old fashioned, but as... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What ken southern doesn't like about The Ship Lobster:

We are a regular small group of walkers. We arrived by car from our walk in Cobham, chosen as the reviews here were so good. Sorry to say we were very disappointed. The building is in a poor state of repair and the inside very scruffy with the dirtiest carpet I have seen for many a year. The locals were friendly as was the bar lady. The food quantity too much even for a large plate and my chips were poor (a friend nea... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful meals, but also a large and comprehensive selection of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
