Our first visit here and thought we would have a drink in the beer garden but due to typical English summer weather in August we decided to have Sunday lunch instead inside. A cosy pub with friendly staff. Lunch was really nice with clean...plates. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area.

What Jake Hunter doesn't like about The Forrester's Arms:

Went down here no contact details were took, never seen the tables being wiped at all! Considering we are in a pandemic you would think they would take extra precautions! Very disappointed. Didn't feel safe and to top it off none of the staff were...wearing face Mask or visors. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Forrester's Arms in Northumberland traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, Forbreakfast a versatile brunch is offered here. Most often, the burgers of this restaurant, which are among the highlights, are offered along with sides like fries, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied diversity of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
