We've been visiting the Sarn for three years, it's a meeting place for our two families and can't fault it. The staff have always been so accommodating and friendly and the food is great. We've eaten there twice in a week, Sunday lunch and a Saturday lunch. Both fab and the three year old catered for and child sized cutlery provided too. If the home made fish finger sandwiches are on the menu, you won't be disappointed... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available without additional charges. What Grace Carter doesn't like about The Sarn:

Menu is nothing like the photos. Lunch very poor. Steak on bread very tough, frankfurter was a poor quality sausage cut into 4 pieces with slimy onions. Chips pale poor quality. No tomato juice or Worcester sauce from bar, no salt and pepper and when asked 3 tiny packets came, no brown sugar for coffee. Service very slow. This lunch was not cheap £1.1 and £13 per very poor dish. Not worth a visit. read more. If eating and drinking is too boring for you, go to this sports bar for a variety of large and small snacks and dishes and catch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, Here, the barbecued food is freshly cooked on an open flame. It should not be forgotten that there is an extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the large variety of traditional dishes and love the typical English cuisine.
