We were staying locally and had booked ahead for dinner. We had a lovely meal cooked and presented well, had to wait a fair time for it but worth it. Then we thought we would just walk in another evening but hadn't booked the person on the bar said we would have a wait of about 3/4 hour but unfortunately it turned out to be nearly 2 hours

we could have walked away but we hadn't booked anywhere else so decided to wait... read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also have something outside. What Tessa F doesn't like about The New Inn: Was most disappointed in the lack of friendly customer service. We came in for a Birthday lunch surprised there were no salad options or deserts. We weren't welcomed or greeted by bartender. We were only given one word abrupt answers with no smiles. Won't be returning or recommend. read more. With the large range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to The New Inn becomes even more attractive, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse diversity of beers from the region and the whole world. Furthermore, there are several typically British meals on the card that give every Englishman abroad the feeling of being at home, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
