The house itself is beautiful and the lighting was lovely and atmospheric. We had a lovely table and the candle light was a lovely touch. Many of the items we looked to order were gone, despite it being a 7.30pm booking. The goats cheese bruschetta starter was gorgeous and the mackerel was excellent. I was a bit underwhelmed by the pork stuffed with black pudding, there wasn't a lot of pork meat, it seemed to have sh... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What Moses Larkin doesn't like about Grove House:
We're regular visitors to Schull and have often walked past Grove House, but had never called in. Last week, a sign in the Schull bookshop advised us that coffee and cake was €6 in Grove House, so we strolled up the Colla Road, ordered coffee and cake and sat in the sunshine overlooking Schull Harbour. A lovely view, a nice old house with character and the cake and the coffee were very nice. The sting in the tail cam... read more. A visit to Grove House becomes even more rewarding due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, and you may look forward to the tasty classic seafood cuisine. You can also find many international dishes in the kitchen of the Grove House, look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine.
