Mondays are not great around Dunfanaghy if you're expecting local eateries to be open. An Chistin wouldn't ordinarily have been our first choice, but after trying out their fish chips via their on-street hatch, it's on our list now. A few beverages from the pub up the street complimented the generously portioned well priced fare as we dined at a nearby bench, watching the world go by against the setting sun. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also be served outside. What joe m doesn't like about An Chistin:

went in and straight away noticed a family waiting for food, we sat down waiting to receive a menu but none came, the gent at the next table got up and lifted a menu but was told that was for carryout, and was handed a sitdown menu from a grumpy woman, i could see straight into the kitchen and they were doing dam all, after 15 mins we got up and left, no atmosphere or interest in serving people, wont be back read more.
