Here you can find the menu of Scent At Home in Dublin. At the moment, there are 23 meals and drinks on the card. Reviews for this local Chinese restaurant are mixed. Some describe long wait times, rude service, and disappointing food quality, while others rave about the delicious dishes and friendly staff. Customers had varying experiences with items like the spice bag and chicken balls, with opinions on portion sizes and flavor differing.

Overall, the restaurant seems to have a loyal customer base despite some recent disappointments. The inconsistent reviews suggest that while there are occasional issues with service and value for money, the food quality may make it worth a try for those looking for a tasty Chinese meal.
