Came for breakfast after someone recommended it. It's very busy so prepare to wait. It was a little slow understandably at first but once we got our order in everything came quickly. We had eggs Benedict and the avocado poached eggs dishes, both very nice and great coffee. It's in an old chapel with many of the features still there which is nice. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What Nilante doesn't like about Chapel Cafe:

Have visited before for lunch but popped in for breakfast this year and to be honest I wouldn't go again. All three of us ordered poached eggs and all three arrived hard. The sausages were oily. The bacon was hard. The food has all clearly been kept under heat lamps for some time. It was also pretty expensive considering the quality. read more.
