What a great place this is. Found it as we were walking around Shaftesbury. Looked very homely from outside so went in met by a friendly chap and showed us to a table for two. We both had toasted sandwiches on the granary. Didn't have to wait long for them, piping hot, I had cheeses and onion a hubby had ham and cheese. Very filling. I had hot choccie and hubby had tea. Great prices and personal service not like the... read more.
