If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What PabloMorley doesn't like about Farmers Arms: Came here for dinner instead of eating at the Airport Hotel just down the road. Great menu, great prices, great food, nice enough inside, big (but neglected beer garden)...but oh dear! We are in no way posh or stuck up but the majority of the clientele might have landed from Planet Rough! Noisy, common, vulgar, scruffy are the best compliments I can pay them. Not the pub's fault I know but if you are going here for a... read more.
