Visitors to the charming cafe in Otley have mixed reviews about their experiences. While some enjoyed the delicious food, friendly staff, and cozy atmosphere, others found the service to be rude and unhelpful. The portions were generous, the prices reasonable, and the quality of food high. Although there was some inconsistency in service and attitude, the overall consensus is that the cafe is worth a visit for a simple, tasty meal in a friendly environment. The lack of card payment facilities was a minor inconvenience for some, but easily resolved with a nearby cash point.
