I was decided by this place by a friend so to go with milly our labradoodle on a sunny Sunday afternoon. we were served by beautiful staff who were friendly and polite. the food is all freshly made, the menu well and the homemade cakes for dying, I chose the toffee apple that was really cumbersome. now, so a visit and will definitely recommend it to others and will go again very soon read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What nigeldetectorist doesn't like about The Water Mill Tearooms:

6 of us went for a birthday meal The food was mixed up and when we queried it the waitress decided to argue with me rather than admit she was wrong. In the end food was sorted. We were refunded the pork as it was as tough as old boots and I came down with suspected she'll fish poisoning from Mussels served for a starter and although cannot prove it I had all the symptoms and I was extremely ill. We will not be goin... read more.
