This restaurant offers a blend of culinary delights and disheartening missteps, presenting an inconsistent experience for diners. While some patrons enjoy friendly service and reasonably priced meals, others encounter significant service issues, such as missing items and inadequate food quality. The atmosphere remains a strong point, with a clean and welcoming environment. Notably, highlights include well-prepared dishes like the Steak and Ruddles Ale pie and Quadzilla burger, though some meals disappoint with poor execution. Overall, while a few shining reviews commend the charm and value, lingering concerns about consistency may deter repeat visits.
