Great Indian restaurant. Unbelievable low prices compared to my local in London. We paid £100 for 6 adults each having a main and side. This price included alcoholic drinks as well. Very impressed with the food. The Madras platter is worth going for. Great service. Only downside was they didn't have a high chair but this did not matter too much. Highly recommended. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Stuart A doesn't like about Madhu Ban Tandoori:

We have used MADHU BARN for a few years, BUT we had a large takeaway order last weekend £70+ . The food was very average, tough chicken, dry side orders. Once I had paid I had forgotten to order a £2.50 dip, and yes they charged me for it!! There are plenty of other curry houses in the rea who in future will get our business. read more.
