On this website, you can find the complete menu of Upstairs At Institution from Hambleton. Currently, there are 15 meals and drinks up for grabs. Nestled in Bedale, this charming café has garnered mixed reviews from patrons. While many appreciate the friendly and welcoming atmosphere, complemented by dog-friendly policies, there are notable concerns regarding portion sizes and value for money. Highlights include delicious afternoon tea with impressive presentation and flavorful cakes, particularly the lemon and white chocolate offering. However, some dishes, like the ham and sausage sandwiches, have fallen short, suffering from poor quality ingredients and unremarkable preparation. Despite some inconsistencies, loyal customers continue to endorse the café for its inviting service and diverse menu, making it a community favorite worth visiting.
