Nice place, especially the upstairs dining room. The food: One of the most amazing Sunday Roast ever: the beef was delicious and the duck fat roasted potatoes were simply to die for. The pudding (apple and blackberry crumble with custard) was good but nothing more. The service; quite friendly. I will go there again. read more.

What Joel Graham doesn't like about Duke Of Wellington:

I am back in London and back to the herd of Wellington, that is my third time to have the burger, starting to become masochism, but I am sure it must be good. The same place has not changed significantly since my first visit. More personal, I have to say. read more.
