We had another lovely meal here. We always choose from the à la carte menu but the fixed price menu seems very popular with diners. We were glad to see that staff were wearing masks and that they had installed screens between tables. Great service...as always and very good value. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about San:

Went with a big party, understandably a bit difficult to manage with loads of food orders at once. But, took about an hour for trays of starters to come out. some of the food was ok, some of it not so much. dumplings tasted...like oil etc they were slow in taking orders so we would sit for long periods without any food to eat. forcing us to drink their incredibly over prices drinks (which you have to have one with yo...
