We used The Balti Cottage twice for takeaways while on holiday in Alness. Both times the curries were excellent. They were full of flavour and good quality ingredients. If this takeaway was local to us, we would be there every week. Top class. Unfortunately I can't say the same for their pizzas. Our kid's pizzas were below average and for some strange reason they used a bright red tandoori sauce rather than a traditi... read more. What andywalt doesn't like about Balti Cottage:

We had a set meal as a treat with an extra prawn puri. This was the worst puri I've ever had, such a lack of flavour and the prawns were over cooked. The pakora were quite good so made up for it a little. We were looking forward to the curry's but on opening the tubs we were greeted with a pool of oil, we skimmed the oil off both curries which a 3rd filled an empty tub but even so the remaining curry on rice (good ri...
