What RayeBowe likes about The Star Inn: The thing that stood out the most, of an overall very pleasant stay, were the staff. They were all very friendly and welcoming and were very helpful. We had two rooms and they were both spacious and very clean, they looked as if they had been recently decorated. There were lovely views over the fields from the back overlooking the large beer garden. We had a meal there in the evening and had a good selection to chose... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What ChiaraLJ doesn't like about The Star Inn:

Very disappointing Sunday roast dinner. We all chose the beef which was just ok. The roast carrots though were really unpleasant, they been seasoned or cooked with a herb which we couldn't quite identify the flavour of which permeated through the rest of the plate. We heard some other diners commenting on this too. Also the roast potatoes were very poor. It seemed they had been cooked and reheated by deep frying which... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Star Inn in Rushcliffe traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, The customers of the restaurant also consider the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Inthemorning a hearty brunch is offered here.
