We enjoyed Breakfast here whilst visiting the area, and the view from the seating area was a delight. Very reasonable prices for the food, served by friendly staff. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Kitty P doesn't like about Parklands Cafe:

My partner and I called in today for a coffee as we have done at times before. The view and walk up to the cafe are beautiful and peaceful. There is pram and disabled access to cafe and toilets which are always very clean.

The staff are lovely and helpful and not a bad choice of food on offer. Only gripe is food not covered at the till, scones buns and other items just left open on plates, that is a germ and health... Naturally, you can't miss out on the fine burgers, which are accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks. Furthermore, the customers of the establishment enjoy the large variety of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available.
