the service was good and the wine was pleasant. Unfortunately, eating was not on our taste. the restaurant seems to provide customers with very traditional taste that, while I am sure that many people enjoy, unfortunately not quite hit the place for us. that is not a critique of itself. from our visit it was clear that the restaurant has a very faithful customer base and what is desired works very well. Unfortunately... read more. I visited Sonning on a Saturday it was very busy. I was waiting for my husband to arrive so parked and went in to The French Horn to see if I could sit and have a coffee while I waited. The car park was empty...compared to elsewhere in Sonning, the bar was empty. I understand why now! I was greeted by a gentleman who asked if he could help. I asked could I please have a coffee. He looked me up and down and said Are y... read more.
