I don't tend to review pubs too often but over the last few months The All Nations has become such a favourite I want to flag it up. Now, it does very much have the feel of a 'local pub for local people' we only live about 20 minutes away yet still feel like all eyes are on us when we enter but the staff are lovely, the beer garden is spacious and most importantly they really deliver where it matters...there is alw... It's a very old real ale pub. Very steep bank to get up. Very small car park. Small bar. Just a limited bar menu. Outside toilets. They cater for parties but really no idea how to do this. Went to a party Saturday night. Very poor indeed left within the hour. Would not return. Really just a locals drinking pub. No frills. Parking: Parking difficult, very steep narrow entrance from the road. Limited space. Road parkin... read more. For quick hunger in between, The All Nations Inn from Telford and Wrekin serves delicious sandwiches, healthy salads, and other treats, as well as hot and cold drinks, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the large variety of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a wide variety of fine and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
