I chose the cafe as a halfway stop between home and a conference I was attending near Scarborough. And how lucky I was to be greeted by Sarah after a rainy journey, driving over flooded and waterlogged roads. My coffee and daisy lime pie were great, and Sarah also told me about the filling station in Barton itself: I managed to save 13p a litre there compared to the one on the main road; so thank you for this too! On... read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Deepdale, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning. Moreover, there are numerous typically British dishes on the menu that are guaranteed to excite every Englishman's taste buds.
